MRS. ANNA M. BERRYMAN.

Death Claimed One of Bryan's Beloved Christian Mothers.

Mrs. Anna Meredith Berryman died at her home in this city last night shortly after 12 o'clock, after an illness of several months. She first contracted a gripe in February, 1914, and was never well any more.

A partial stroke of paralysis followed a few months ago and pneumonia developed on Sunday, December 27, and from that time on her condition gradually grew worse until death relieved her suffering at the hour stated. The tenderest possible ministering at the hands of her dear children had been maintained the entire time, but the infirmities of age, coupled with the grievous ill that afflicted her, conquered, she paid the debt and now is free.

She was Miss Anna Spencer before marriage and was born in Buckingham County, Virginia, in 1832, making her in her eighty-third year at the time of her death. She was educated in a private school in Virginia, grew to young womanhood there, and in 1854 was united in marriage to Rev. J. J. Berryman. She came to Texas in 1876 with her husband, and a short time afterward they settled in Bryan and this had been her home continuously since.

She was a member of the Missionary Baptist Church and all her life had been a faithful, consecrated Christian. She had two faults which conquer all things, and bore her long suffering as can only those who are close to God. Her faith was triumphant in death. Her pastor at the morning service yesterday, in speaking of her serious condition and that she could last but a few hours, spoke of her triumphant faith and said that at her home there was soon to be a great victory. Those who knew of the calmness of her soul could not help but exclaim, "Oh, grave, where is thy victory, oh, death, where is thy sting?"

She is survived by five children, viz.: Mrs. Mattie B. Smith of Kilgore, Mrs. M. F. Barrow of Austin, S. J. Berryman of Palestine and Misses Willie and Nannie Berryman of this city. She also leaves a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, all of whom have the sympathy of neighbors and friends in their great affliction.

The funeral will be held from the family home tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, and Dr. M. E. Weaver will conduct the service.

MR. J. A. PARKER DEAD.

Another of the County's Old Citizens Passed Away.

After a long and painful illness, Mr. J. A. Parker of Minter Springs community surrendered to the great reaper at 7:33 p. m. on December 29.

He was born in Alabama July 30, 1844, and attained the ripe old age of 70 years and 4 months.

Mr. Parker was an old resident of Brazos County, a good citizen and Confederate veteran, serving through all the four years of the civil war.

He leaves a wife, four sons and two daughters, all of whom were with him when the end came.

To those grief stricken ones whose tender ministrations soothed his last hours we offer our sincerest sympathy.

A FRIEND.

SMALL BLAZE.

A small fire occurred at the home of Luther Johnson at the old Baker house on the west side of town Saturday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock.

A small hole was burned in the roof of the house, which caught from a spark from the flue. Timely work saved the house from burning and the damage was only nominal.

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

New Structure at A. & M. Scene of Social Gatherings.

Frequent use of the Y. M. C. A. building, recently completed, for social affairs both for campus residents and students of the A. & M. College, is being made. During the holidays this building was the scene of two big social affairs for the college people.

Christmas eve a Christmas party for students was given in the spacious lobby. Presents for each of the 125 cadets who remained over at the college during the holidays were provided and in addition the campus residents were remembered. This party was given under the direction of the Y. M. C. A.

New Year's Day the Campus Study Club, an organization composed of the wives of college officials, kept open house at the Y. M. C. A. Tea and coffee and wafers were served. Music was rendered by Miss Lois Rogers and Mrs. Charles Priley, pianists, and by Mrs. George D. Marshall, vocalist. The lobby of the handsome building was decorated with Christmas greens.
